Longford Outing

A posse of club members descended on Connolly Bks on 24th May 2003 to enjoy the culinary delights and hospitality of the only remaining Cavalry bastion. The attendees included our esteemed Director Brendan McCann and the following reprobates - Mick Bohan, Pearse Buckley, Bob Carroll, Gerry Cooney, Philip Cotter, Tony Davey, Bob Duggan, Philip Gann, Larry Johnson, Ken Kelly, Seamie Killeen, Brendan McDonald, Joe McGrath, Chris McQuaid, Mick O'Boyle, Cathal O'Neill, John Power and Seamus Ryan. The Committee would like to acknowledge the personal efforts of Joe McGrath in making this event a success. The focus of the get together was to bid farewell to D Cav who has been posted to the European Union mission in Sarajevo. A small presentation was made to Col McCann on behalf of the membership and we wish him a safe tour of duty.

Unfortunately, the Annual Golf Outing did not proceed, as there were not enough members to constitute even a single four ball. The committee would welcome any suggestions for an alternative date and venue.

Stand Down Parade - Col R. E. M Heaslip

A Stand Down Parade will take place at the Defence Forces Training Centre, Carragh Camp on Wednesday 06 August 2003 at 1500hrs to mark the retirement of Colonel Dick Heaslip. The parade will be followed with a presentation from his Defence Forces colleagues in Ceann Oifig's Mess at 1600hrs.

Cavalry Memorial Day

A mass to honour our deceased comrades of the Cavalry Corps will take place on Saturday 6th September 2003 at 1100hrs in the environs of the Cavalry Memorial Garden. All club members are invited to attend.

Club Expeditionary Force - Sat 20th Sept 2003

An overnight outing to Bushmills, Co. Antrim is scheduled for Saturday 20th September 2003. It is hoped to link up for Sunday lunch with members of the North Irish Horse who have a squadron located nearby in Limavady. Members are encouraged to attend with spouses and further details are available from the Club President at 01-8042109.

Cavalry Club AGM - 1st November 2003

The major social outing of the year will take place on Saturday 1st November 2003 following the Club's AGM at the Officers' Mess, Cathal Brugha Bks subject to permission from GOC 2 Eastern Brigade. It is hoped that all members will make a special effort to attend this event.
